

American College of Physicians (ACP) – Faculty Development Program Madrid, Spain – March 6-7, 2020

March 6, 2020

Program Introduction – Local Host and Dr. Gustavo Heudebert, MD, MACP

9:00-9:15

Can Clinical Reasoning be Taught in the Setting of Multimorbidity? – Dr. Gustavo Heudebert, MD, MACP

9:15 – 9:45 Lecture

9:45 – 11:15 Guided workshop with local facilitator

11:15 – 11:30 – Coffee

Reducing Bias in Clinical Teaching and Assessment – Dr. Carlos Estrada, MD, FACP

11:30 – 12:00 Lecture

12:00 – 13:30 Guided workshop with local facilitator

13:30 – 14:30 – Lunch

High Value Care & Quality Improvement in Patients with a Focus in Complex Chronic Diseases – Dr. Gaby Frank, MD, FACP

14:30 – 15:00 Lecture

15:00 – 16:30 Guided workshop with local facilitator

16:30 – 16:45 – Coffee

16:45 – 17:45 – Day 1 Wrap-up (all ACP faculty by the podium)

17:45 – 18:15 – Wrap up (ACP faculty and local facilitators only)

March 7, 2020

Infusing Empathy and Humanism into Clinical Teaching of Frail Patients – Dr. Gaby Frank, MD, FACP

9:15 – 9:45 Lecture

9:45 – 11:15 Guided workshop with local facilitator

11:15 – 11:30 – Coffee

Professionalism: Can it be Learned? – Dr. Carlos Estrada, MD, FACP

11:30 – 12:00 Lecture

12:00 – 13:30 Guided workshop with local facilitator

13:30 – 14:30 – Lunch

Finding One's True North as a Clinical Teacher in Internal Medicine – Dr. Gustavo Heudebert, MD, MACP

14:30 – 15:15 Lecture

15:15 – 16:15 – Day 2 Wrap-up (all ACP speakers and local facilitators by the podium)